

TEMPORARY EXEMPTION FOR PROPERTY DAMAGED ON APRIL 10, 2024

Governor Abbott declared Jefferson County a disaster area on April 15, 2024 due to severe weather on April 10, 2024. If your property experienced any damage from high winds or flooding, you may be eligible to receive a temporary exemption on your property based on the level of damage sustained. The exemption will be pro-rated from April 10, 2024 to December 31, 2024. The temporary exemption will expire on January 1, 2025. The amount of the exemption is based on the level of damage sustained:

Level I – 15% exemption: The property sustained damages between 15% and 29%
Level II – 30% exemption: The property sustained damages between 30% and 59%
Level III – 60% exemption: The property sustained damages of at least 60% but is not a total loss
Level IV – 100% exemption: The property is a total loss
